Will Just a Picture Do,...
Or Does Your Heart Require More?

We believe that anyone can capture a picture, but creating a portrait that speaks to your heart requires artistry, a love for people and the recognition of each person's importance. Also, creativity and technical skills are important to turn vision into a finished art piece.

We are Kirk and Rachel Charles, the husband and wife team of Charles Photography Portrait Art. We truly enjoy working with you to create beautiful portraits that capture the wonderful moments and relationships of your family and children. With our love of art as our creative foundation, your portraits will be unlike those of a conventional studio. They will hang in your home as cherished art pieces, reflecting the love and warmth of your family, the beauty and innocence of childhood, and the milestones of your life.

Our families are the most important thing to us. They are ever changing, and you want to savor every moment. Even in the chaos of everyday life, walking through your home and catching a glimpse of your family's portraits is a powerful way to be reminded of the love and memories you have shared over the years. No matter how many years have gone by.

Give us a call, we look forward to chatting with you about your family portraits.

If you are not thrilled with your portraits, then neither are we.

At Charles Photography Portrait Art, we have a

100% Satisfaction Guarantee Policy.

If you are not happy with your portraits, we will recreate them, or refund your money. There is never a chance you will spend money on portraits you are not happy with.

It has been said....

"Portraits do not happen in the camera, but on either side of it" Edward Steichen.

Therefore, so that your portraits will be unique and meaningful to you, we always begin with a complimentary Design Consultation. At this time you can see more of our work, get to know us better and decide if we are the ones to create your family portraits.

We will then discuss mood and styles of portraiture, clothing choices, the setting for your portraits, and coordinating your portraits with your home decor. Making these decisions in advance allows you to relax and be confident in your decisions and enjoy the portrait session. It also allows us to guarantee creating portraits you are sure to love.
